

VOLUNTARY REGISTRATION SCHEME FOR
TECHNICIANS HANDLING MILDLY FLAMMABLE REFRIGERANT
OF HOUSEHOLD AIR-CONDITIONERS

Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

Purpose

To enhance the safety awareness and work practices for handling flammable refrigerants of household air-conditioners in local air-conditioning trade.

Criterion

Training courses/ Activities that can enhance the technical competence or upgrade personal skills and knowledge of Registered Technician Handling Mildly Flammable Refrigerant of Household Air-conditioners to achieve the above purpose.

Options for CPD

- Training courses provided by the Electrical and Mechanical Services Department (EMSD) on flammable refrigerant;
- Training courses organized by Pro-Act Training and Development Centre (Electrical) of Vocational Training Council (VTC);
- Technical training courses provided by R32 household air-conditioner suppliers for the air-conditioning and refrigeration trade or in-house staffs;
- Relevant training courses/ seminars organized by professional institutions or trade associations / unions of the air-conditioning and refrigeration trade;
- Through “Newsletter on New Eco-friendly Refrigerants”.