

ELECTRICITY ORDINANCE (Chapter 406)

ELECTRICITY (WIRING) REGULATIONS

It is hereby notified that Amendment No. 1:2007 to the Code of Practice for the Electricity (Wiring) Regulations has been issued. The revisions provide technical guidelines on how the statutory requirements of the Electricity (Wiring) Regulations can be met with respect to the use of the new cable colour code from 1 July 2007. The amendment is issued as an addendum to the Code of Practice for the Electricity (Wiring) Regulations. Soft copy of the addendum can be downloaded freely from EMSD website (www.emsd.gov.hk). Hard copy of the addendum is inserted in the Code of Practice for the Electricity (Wiring) Regulations which is available for sale at the Publications Sales Section of the Information Services Department at Room 402, Murray Building, Garden Road, Central. Orders can also be placed through online Government Bookstore at www.bookstore.gov.hk or by e-mail at puborder@isd.gov.hk.
